FINAL ACTION

Status of the Claims

1. This action is in response to papers filed 18 January 2005 in which claims 40-41, 43 and 45 were amended, claims 42, 44 and 46-54 were canceled and claims 55-63 were added. All of the amendments have been thoroughly reviewed and entered.

The previous rejections in the Office Action dated 16 July 2004 are withdrawn in view of the amendments. Applicant's arguments have been thoroughly reviewed but are deemed moot in view of the amendments, withdrawn rejections and new grounds for rejection. New grounds for rejection are discussed.

Claims 40-41, 43, 45 and 55-63 are under prosecution.

Claim Objections

2. The Claim Listing is objected to because Claim 45 is repeated. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claim 56 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1634

Claim 56 is indefinite for the recitation "said combination of IBLs and said first and second DBLs comprise single stranded nucleic acid." because it is unclear whether all of the IBLs and DBLs are a single nucleic acid or whether each IBL and DBL is a single stranded nucleic acid. It is suggested that the claim be amended to clarify e.g. each comprise a single stranded nucleic acid.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 40-41, 43, 45 and 55-63 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,620,584. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both sets of claims are drawn to methods for decoding an array of microspheres and differ only in the terminology used and arrangement of limitations within the claim sets. For example, the instant claims are drawn to decoder binding ligands (DBL) that bind to identifier binding ligands (IBL) on the microspheres for position identification. The '584 method requires the same steps but uses the terms decoding nucleotide that bind to a decoding sequence on the microspheres. Additionally, the independent '584 claims of the define the decoding nucleotide and sequence as nucleic acids while dependent claims 43 and

56 of the instant application define the DBL and IBL as nucleic acids. Therefore, the claim sets are drawn to methods which are not patentably distinct.

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Conclusion

8. No claim is allowed.
